

---

The City of Maricopa's Economic Development Department is building the new 21st Century American City. Maricopa's economic development strategy is centered on building a sustainable city – one that features an economy characterized by diversity, competitiveness and success in the global economy. To learn about business opportunities in Maricopa, contact our Economic Development office, 520/316.6812.

{loadposition editor}